Thank you so much T. Harv Eker and team for a fantabulous 8 weeks of amazing insights and transformation. Loved it Loved it Loved it. Made big changes in my thinking, got a few new habits in place, had a good laugh, enjoyed the heart warming father Duck approach and hungry for more.

Blessings to you and all the members of this group. ❤️❤️❤️

Absolutely brilliant - awesome - educational - I wish I had known this years and years and yeas ago when I had so much money flowing through my fingers! Why is this not taught in schools to youngsters! This was a fantastic session with Harv as usual and it was for 2 hrs long and I was focused and alert listening to his every word throughout! Many many thanks Harv. Much appreciated.

Just want to reiterate the sentiments of everyone else - WOW!! 😊 The call was amazing...for me, the best part was the visualisation at the end, felt very emotional and real. Looking forward to next week already...have a great weekend, friends! 😊

Thank you, thank you, thank you T. Harv. I'm so grateful for the webinar that you just hosted. I have enjoyed the first 2, but this one was fantastic. The interesting thing was that I didn't learn much that I didn't know already, however it was a massive, massive, massive reminder of habits that I used to have, that I have let slip and fall away.

Another Awesome class tonight. It's funny how the universe works. The week after I signed up for this course I had an accident at work that has kept me out of work for almost a month now and still have at least 2 more weeks before I could have returned to work. I was worried that I might not be able to complete the classes due to the loss of income. I have tried for years to build an online business through network marketing because I believe in its core mission of personal development and empowering others to achieve thier full potential but only had limited success. After last weeks call an old business coach of mine reached out to me about a new business he had got involved in and asked me to join him. It turned out to be the perfect vehicle to not only compliment the lessons I'm learning here but to help others finally succeed through a fully duplicatable system that uses technology to do the all of the hard work. I am now confident not only will I replace the income from my old job but double it before the class is complete and I won't be returning to my job. My goal is to help 100 people to quit their jobs and write their own story before the end of this year. What I had thought of as a major setback in my life has turned into a blessing and all it took was rewriting my story.

Hi all, last weeks webinar was mind blowing for me. I took action right after and found a web designer to do my new website for my business. I have hope again after waiting to start this business for 3 years now. Felt great. Just hope I can keep the momentum going.

Yes! I found the perfect jars! 😊 I look at them and smile big knowing that they will help me develop the habit of living my life as an excellent money manager! 😊 That's why I put them in a spot that I can see very often!

Yesterday I paid myself 100 dollars and divided that into my beautiful jars. I plan to pay myself this amount every Friday until I start making money for myself!

I also plan on keeping an excel spreadsheet of the 6 financial sections that they represent since I know that soon I will be paying myself more than the amount that will fit into any type of jar! 😊

I'm not sure whether I have to spend the money in the "give", "play" and "education" jars on a weekly basis, or can I allow the money to grow in those jars? Any feedback on this would be greatly appreciated!

Also, is a really really really exciting week for me!

After having stayed at home with my twins for almost 7 years, I am going to be taking a leap of faith and starting a training and events company this week, as a birthday gift to myself! 💖

Hi you all spiritual millionaires! 😊 Wanted to share my experience of my amazing, rich life: after the last seek's session, my immediate act was that I took a decision to go for it - no matter what. 'It' for me means to REALLY start to act on my project on helping people get more happy in their lifes and turn it into my everyday job. Because I want my project to work online, I want to upgreat a website I already have (making it look more interesting by uploading better pictures, that would represent me and what I do).

Remember - I have no budget at all at the moment, only my creativity. I knew exactly what I want and mentioned it to my very good friend. Within 1 day I recieved a message from him, that everything is organized: a studio, a photographer, a make up arstist and a hairdresser + the clothing - everything FREE OF CHARGE as a gift from him to me, because I've helped him when he most needed it. 😊 😊 Now - this is what Paolo Coelho meant by saying: IF YOU REALLY WANT SOMETHING, THEN THE WHOLE UNIVERSE WILL HELP YOU TO GET THERE and WHAT SOW IS WHAT YOU-LL REAP 😊 Thank you! ❤️ ❤️ I wish you all a great day, full of passion for what you really love to do and help a lot of other people with it. 😊

my soul is spinning with joy

just finished listening to the recorded copy of this week's session. how awesome!

six months ago i left a career in finances to follow my passion in art. (if you're interested in seeing what i do, i'm on facebook under Zanna's Attic.)

i've known for years that my passion is painting, but not knowing, have almost accepted that maybe i don't really have a purpose, maybe i'm just floundering around with only a passion. this last week i felt very, very lost, i felt that i was a fraud, who could i serve, i had no real service to offer. halfway through the session, Harv said, "look to your past challenges, problems, pain..." these being clues to our purpose in life. and right then, i clearly understood my purpose. i started painting in earnest during a serious depression. nothing else worked for me. it became my passion, my joy, my outlet, and most recently a source of income.

i didn't think that i could help anyone at all except by putting paintings on their walls, but Monday, i'll be working on a plan which includes contacting my old doctors and local organizations to offer my services to people who have tried everything and see no hope in sight, who are resigned to their illness, who only need to take a step in any direction away from their darkness to catch a glimmer of the light.

Harv, thank you, thank you, thank you.

(i really am the only one of me. i know, i've googled MY real name!)

MERCI!!! Just finished with the week 4 call. Here is just my experience : In the past I was negative towards money, later on I was like undifferent, lately I thought money is great because it helps to help myself and other people but without knowing the management part of it. For me managing and saving was a bit like being miserable and anyway i didn't know how to do it.

TODAY I LEARNED THE PRACTICAL AND SPIRITUAL SIDE OF THINGS - and guess what? I FEEL RELIEVED AND OK WITH MYSELF! Go right now to take jars and stickers - and will open a FFA account later on. — 😊 feeling excited.

Thank you Harv, for such an inspiring class tonight! I feel an interesting energy, very soft and grounded, and very very peaceful. Since the beginning of the course I've already noticed a shift in quite a few areas of my life, but mainly in my business - it unlocked! Opportunities are flowing in as a stream, and I feel a calm confidence and supported by God. I have crossed the line from doubt to trust. I can only describe it as a miracle.

Thank you, and may God bless you for being so present in your life and in your purpose. You are an inspiration and a model to follow.

Wow, since putting up my jars I have attracted more money to put in them. I normally am a home maker and I do not have my own source of income but I am finding my way to becoming a millionaire. Over the weekend I helped someone do deep house cleaning - the windows, stove, laundry room, etc. (which i enjoy doing anyway) and made $120.00 That was huge.

I had not done that before the jar system. I love how I am attracting money to put into my jars since now I AM an excellent money manager. So be it! I love this weeks homework. I keep saying it over and over again. I AM an excellent money manager, so be it! At first with no money, and in the past a poor money manager, it felt strange, but now, I know it to be true. The jar system sure is working for me.

I had $10.01 in my checking account on the day of the class. Seriously. After this class I opened all extra accounts I needed and literally transferred $1 to each account and $0.50 to charity leaving $5.51 in my checking which is now is "NEC". Before this lesson it would have felt ridiculous to me to do it with 10 bucks but now it is symbolic, inspiring and is a landmark to a new way I am managing my money! Thanks T. Harv!!! Still have to shop to find my lovely jars, thanks everyone for sharing the photos of your jars, it's quite fun to see what's everyone doing! — 😊 feeling determined.

First I like to thank Harve, Jess, Alexandru and all the people involved in presenting such an amazing and inspiring program on Being a Spiritual Millionaire for the past 8 weeks. In a way I will be missing those 2:45 am wake up calls on Thursday morning (South African time)

I have been inspired, touched and moved so much as well as truly enriched for me to be a Spiritual Millionaire. As such, I like to share My Declaration on Being a Spiritual Millionaire as well as my completed mantra/affirmation mind map for you all to enjoy as I do,

My Declaration on Being a Spiritual Millionaire

I am a Spiritual Millionaire by working hard at working smart and making space for Spirit to move.
 Blending hart passion with spiritual purpose which includes business and success skills.
 I also infuse my giving by my state of Being
 I always bless that what I desire, the person having it and truly enjoying what I have now!
 As such:
 I am kind loving peaceful and rich,
 I love myself, honor myself and respect myself,
 I create wealth with passion and joy,
 I am an excellent money manager,
 I get rich doing what I love,
 I act in spite of fear,
 I live in financial harmony with others,
 as well as
 I earn a high income, I am financially free,
 So Be It.

to me

Hi again,

Thoroughly enjoyed your seminar...you had me LOL several times. The only thing I missed was the meditation which you led at the end. By that time, I was ready for a sleep and simply fell into it and put my conscious aside completely. So I'm looking forward to hearing it again and this time, following along with my cons.

I found myself feeling almost afraid for you as you became so excited and passionate about your subject that your voice rose almost to the screeching level. But I'm sure your blood pressure is very much under control. I found myself screeching mentally right along with you. Talk about the kettle brimming over!!!

A most stirring, inspiring evening. Thank you so much. Looking forward to the rest.

Love and hugs, Audrey MacDonald

P.S.: A suggestion: When I relisten to a recording, I like to take it up exactly where I left off. This means of course the screen would have to have an indicating line with accompanying numbers to follow it. Then I can relisten to any parts I please, as many times as I want. This is like practicing the piano. When I need to fix a certain section, I simply repeat it, several times rather than going back to the beginning each time. I have to use my time economically and specifically. Please, please, try to...no don't try, please do it...make this possible. I notice that many seminars and master classes have this same defect. I treasure my time as I'm sure do you. It would be a wonderful improvement. Please work to bring this about. Thanks again.

Dear all
the Webinar was really great - thank's so much to Harv!
Not only his blood is hot - our's on the call also got heated up!

I got up to be online - here it's then 2 am in the Morning !!!

The only problem - no not getting up - but afterwards
no possibility to go back to sleep !

One is so loaded with Energy and new Know How and Aha's which are making head and system spinning restlessly!

Looking forward to next Week!
To all of you - have a great weekend
and light filled greetings from Morocco

So proud to be one of T. Harv Eker's ducklings! 😊

Yes, he/his teachings will take care of us! 😊 ❤️

The same teachings, we shall pass on to many many many others, some of whom we have not yet met!

His genius will live on through us, his ducklings, like ripples, repeating circles of water emanating from the point where a stone is dropped into a body of water...

The principles we take with us. They will be in our minds and hearts, now and for always!

Thank you T. Harv Eker for a life changing course!

And thank you Jesse Eker, Alexandru Surdu and everyone else whose names I do not know but whose efforts behind the screens made this experience possible for all of us!

And thank you all my fellow SPIRITUAL MILLIONAIRES for the amazing energy you created, it just would not have been the same without YOU! 😊

When I started learning from Harv I was doing ok but after that I started a 6-figure business, I was working from the beach just a couple of days part time. And this year it looks like the business will do 7 figures so with all I learning from Harv not only I am earning more and more money but I am living my purpose more and following my passion and I am becoming more and more happier. So if you are interested in creating more abundance, in making a great living doing what you love and ensure being really, really spiritual and getting really, really rich, and rewarded for your unique talent, I absolutely sincerely invite you to join Harv Eker for the masterclass. He has had a huge impact on my life and I am sure Harv will help you too. So I urge you to sign up and make sure you show up. Peace!”

Carl Harvey
Host, The Big Life

Even though I run a personal growth company and I studied hundreds of authors, Harv is perhaps is the one I spend the most time studying. We spend 70% of our waken hours just trying to earn a living but so many of us stagnate and stay at this specific level because we never bother to go deep within our minds and identify the believe systems that we have about success and abundance and riches. When we remove the beliefs that are holding us back and swap in beliefs that empower us, this is when you really really grow in your career as an entrepreneur and in your levels of work and abundance.”
